

LABELING PERSONAL BELONGINGS

At the elementary level, it is especially important that students label all personal belongings clearly and permanently to prevent confusion and loss. The school is not responsible for lost or damaged personal belongings.