

LIBRARY REGULATIONS

1. The library provides students with fiction and nonfiction books, magazines, reference materials and other research information.
2. The students are given the privilege of studying in a quiet atmosphere.
3. To continue to utilize their library privileges, students must return books and pay fines.
4. It will be the prerogative of the librarian and administration to set up specific library rules.