

COMMUNICATIONS

All communications wished to be distributed to students and/or faculty needs to be approved by an administrator. Administrators will determine whether or not information can be passed out to students, parents or faculty depending on the nature of the organization and/ or program. Advertisements for entities that are not non-profit are discouraged from being sent to school and may not be approved by administration for distribution.