

BOARD MEMBER QUALIFICATIONS

A person is legally qualified to become a member of the school board if he/she is a United States citizen, complies with the provision of law relating to the registration of voters and is a qualified elector, at least 18 years of age and not otherwise disqualified.

In accordance with state law, no elective county, municipal, or state officer or holder of other office whose duties are incompatible or inconsistent with the duties of the school board member will be eligible for such membership. This includes the elected offices of legislator, county commissioner and city official.
